

DK TERMO

DK Termo wooden access door has door thickness of 1.02 in. The construction of the product is durable and solid. The door is finished with a white varnish that retains its color for many years. The set includes a screen molding made of white plastic

|                                 |                           |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Thickness of insulated doors    | 1.02 in                   |
| Thickness of thermal insulation | 0.78 in                   |
| Door finish                     | white (both sides)        |
| Frame depth                     | 4.33 in                   |
| Frame thickness                 | 1.18 in                   |
| Opening                         | with handle               |
| Slot hinge                      | metal                     |
| Warranty                        | 3 years                   |
| Frame material                  | softwood                  |
| Screen molding                  | included (white)          |
| Universal assembly              | left hand/right hand      |
| Application                     | interior                  |
| Closing method                  | locking latch when closed |

$$R = 4.65$$

ft<sup>2</sup>·°F·h/BTU

$$1 \times \text{SEAL}$$

Outer box dimensions, mounting opening 0.79 in larger